

Holocaust Center Happenings 2009

Teaching with Defiance: Jewish Resistance and the Bielski Partisans.

Join HCNC and JPEF for a hands-on educator institute to learn how you can incorporate this major motion picture into your Holocaust curriculum. At HCNC, Sunday October 18, 9:30am-1:30pm.

www.jewishpartisans.org/defianceba

Manovill Holocaust History Fellowship:

Available only through HCNC, this program offers high school students (11th & 12th grade) a unique opportunity to study the Holocaust and genocide at a college level. Five fellows will be selected. Applications for this competitive fellowship are due November 12!

www.hcnc.org/education/manovill.html

Notre Combat*: A

Communal Response to Genocide HCNC partners with the Contemporary Jewish Museum (CJM) to bring the upcoming Notre Combat exhibit into Bay Area classrooms. This exhibit is a collective work responding to Hitler's manifesto, Mein Kampf. Morgan Blum will present curriculum that incorporates Holocaust art, history and activism. At CJM, Thursday February 25, 5:00-7:30pm.

Morris Weiss Scholarship

$1500 Education Award. Morris Weiss was a founder of the Holocaust Center of Northern California. In his memory, his family established a scholarship open to 11th & 12th grade Bay Area students each spring. This year, entrants are asked to look at the role of women during the Holocaust:

www.hcnc.org/scholarship.html

The Survivors Speakers

Bureau provides a unique opportunity for your students to hear the amazing first-hand accounts of survival during the Holocaust and WWII. Programs are held at the Holocaust Center for smaller groups, (60 or less) or at your school. Please submit your request for a speaker several weeks in advance via HCNC's website:

www.hcnc.org/speakbureau.html

Teacher Resource Center:

Available for Bay Area educators. Consult with Morgan Blum, or check out books, films and curriculum to supplement your Holocaust and genocide units.

Direct your inquiries regarding:

Speakers for your school: Rachel Isquith
415-777-9060 x204 risquith@hcnc.org

Educational programs: Morgan Blum
415-777-9060 x203 mblum@hcnc.org

Library and Archives: Judy Janec
415-777-9060 x206 jjanec@hcnc.org

